

OFFICE OF THE ATTORNEY GENERAL
OFFICE OF VICTIMS ADVOCACY
With assistance from the
KENTUCKY ASSOCIATION OF CHILD ADVOCACY CENTERS

POSTER CONTEST
National Crime Victims' Rights Week
(April 10 – 16, 2016)

Contest open to children and youth from throughout Kentucky!

Winners: 15 winning posters will be selected, one from each area development district. From these winners, 3rd, 2nd and 1st place winners will be selected. All winning designs will be turned into posters and displayed in the State Capitol during Victims' Rights Day activities on April 13th. Winning artists will also be recognized.

Crime Victims Have Rights! 2016 National Crime Victims' Rights Week Theme: Serving Victims, Building Trust, Restoring Hope.

Poster Ideas: Serving Victims, Building Trust and/or Restoring Hope for victims of: Child Abuse/Neglect, Physical or Sexual Assault, Human Trafficking, Dating Violence, Elder Abuse, Domestic Violence, Cyber Crimes, Homicide, Theft/Robbery, Drug related crimes, Drunk/Drugged Driving, etc.

Posters should be mailed to:

Office of the Attorney General, Office of Victims Advocacy
Attention: Lana Grandon
1024 Capital Center Drive, Suite 200
Frankfort, KY 40601.

DEADLINE: All posters must be postmarked by March 16, 2016 to be eligible for participation in the contest.

The artist's name, age and parent(s)/guardian(s) name, address, e-mail address (if available) and phone number must be written on the back of the artwork. Artwork that does not include this information will not be eligible for the contest.

Crime Victims' Rights Poster Contest Rules and Requirements:

- Contest entrants must reside in the Commonwealth of Kentucky
- Artists must be 17 years of age or under
- Artwork must be 8.5" x 11"
- Only one entry per person
- The following art media may be used: crayons, colored pencils, watercolors, acrylic poster paint, and/or markers
- Original artwork only: no trademarked or copyrighted material or computer generated artwork will be accepted
- The artist's name, age and parent(s)/guardian(s) name, address, e-mail address (if available) and phone number must be written on the back of the artwork
- Artwork will NOT be returned to the artist
- Enlarged copies of the winning artwork will be displayed for public viewing in the State Capitol on April 13, 2016 during Kentucky's Crime Victims' Rights Day activities
- No inappropriate items may be used and/or displayed on the artwork; any artwork deemed inappropriate will not be entered in the contest or displayed for viewing
- By entering the contest the entrant and parent/guardian agree to the reproduction and display of their artwork during Kentucky's Crime Victims' Rights Day activities and for use in related publications, news features, blogs, social media, or other advertisements or promotional/awareness activities relating to the 2016 Crime Victims' Rights Poster Contest and other Crime Victims' Rights Day/Week related activities. I also understand that any written statements may be edited or used, in whole or in part, or adapted with other materials, and I hereby waive all rights of privacy, compensation, control, or royalties that I may have.

Winners will be notified in late March.

All participating artists are invited to attend Kentucky's 2016 Crime Victims' Rights Day Recognition Ceremony which will be held in the State Capitol Rotunda on Wednesday, April 13, 2016 beginning at 12:00 p.m. A reception will follow.

For more information contact the Office of Victims Advocacy within the Office of the Attorney General at 800 372 2551 or 502 696 5312 or e-mail Lana.Grandon@ky.gov.

This project is supported by a National Crime Victims' Rights Week Community Awareness Project subgrant awarded by the National Association of VOCA Assistance Administrators under a Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) grant from the Office for Victims of Crime, Office of Justice Programs, U.S. Department of Justice.

Expenses related to attendance at the April 13, 2016 event are the responsibility of the attendee.