In Person and NTI Turning In Assignments on SeeSaw

Assignments are expected to be turned in on the due date. You will photograph your work, upload it to your SeeSaw online art portfolio under the Activity. You are required to upload daily participation in your Journal and post assignments to your Activity tab. Your name must be visible in the lower left hand corner of the project. You are to keep your artwork and do not throw it away.

Missing Work

Should the school move to NTI for a designated period of time. Students will be expected to complete assignments in a timely manner. Due dates will be specified by course instructors. If students fail to complete an assignment by the designated due date, a reduction in points will occur. If a student has not submitted an assignment two weeks following the due date the student cannot receive any credit for that assignment.

CELL PHONE and

CHROMEBOOK POLICY

Your cell phones are a privilege in this class. They will be allowed during independent work time only (Studio Time). You are to use them to research ideas, topics, or images appropriate for class. You may listen to music, but with earbuds only. You may not be on Netflix, games, or social media. You may not text unless you have permission. If your cell phone or device is out at inappropriate times or are causing a distraction they will be put up and you will lose participation points from your weekly participation grade. Additionally, Chromebooks are YOUR responsibility and need to be put up around materials that can damage the Chromebook such as paint and water.

Corrective Consequences

If you violate the above expectations you will receive:

- 1) A verbal warning
- 2) Loss of participation Points
- 3) Change of seat and/or loss of free seating day.
- 4) Disciplinary Referral and parent notification
